NATE ROCKS THE WORLD WINS PURPLE DRAGONFLY BOOK AWARD

ELKINS PARK, PA (June, 2012) – The judges of the third annual Purple Dragonfly Book Awards contest, which recognizes excellence in children's literature, have spoken, and Nate Rocks the World by Karen Pokras Toz, won the overall Grand Prize and 1st Place in the Chapter Book category.

“Winning any place in the Purple Dragonfly Contest is a huge honor because in order to maintain the integrity of the Dragonfly Book Awards, a minimum score of 72 out of 80 must be earned for a 1st Place award, 64 out of 80 for a 2nd Place and 56 out of 80 for an Honorable Mention – even if it is the sole entry in a category,” explains Linda F. Radke, president of Five Star Publications, Inc., the sponsor of the Dragonfly Book Awards. “Competition is steep, too, because there is no publication date limit as long as the book is still in print.” Nate Rocks the World, received a perfect score of 80 out of 80.

Nate Rocks the World, is about ten-year-old Nathan Rockledge, a fourth-grade boy who draws himself starring in adventures that come to life, teaching children that anyone can accomplish great things. It retails for $7.99 and can be purchased wherever books are sold.

The Royal Dragonfly Book Awards, which honors all genres of books in 50 categories, is currently in progress with an October 1, 2012 deadline. However, Royal Dragonfly submissions postmarked August 1, 2012 or earlier are eligible for the Early Bird reward: a free e-copy of The Economical Guide to Self-Publishing or Promote Like a Pro: Small Budget, Big Show. The fourth Annual Purple Dragonfly Book Awards contest is already underway with a March 1, 2013 early bird deadline and May 1 final deadline. There is no publication date restriction as long as the titles entered are still in print.
